

TALK OF THE TURF

Rumors of Brooklyn Jockey Club's Withdrawal from the Board.

MIKE DWYER GETTING TIRED.

Reckon's Remarkable Race Stamps Her a Filly Hard to Beat.

The rumor that the Brooklyn Jockey Club will withdraw from the Board of Control has been revived. Whether there is any foundation for this report or not the paper is unable to learn. The Dwyers are with non-committal, and their intimate friends deny any knowledge of the Dwyers' intentions. It is a fact, however, that Mr. M. P. Dwyer is tired of the methods used by the Board of Control, and he is anxious to withdraw the Brooklyn Club from that organization. Mr. Dwyer, like many another horseman, chafes under the bonds that the Board of Control has placed upon them in regard to Guttenburg. They cannot race there without incurring the displeasure of the Board and being virtually ruled off. It is a question even if Mr. Dwyer should succeed in having the Brooklyn Club withdraw from the Turf Trust, that he would race at Guttenburg. It is seven months of $500 purses or six months of rich stakes. The Brooklyn Club would no doubt get along infinitely better without the Board of Control, but the writer doubts if any such action will be taken.

Jeter Walden is in a bad state of mind. It will be remembered that two weeks ago Mr. Walden lodged protests against any purses being paid to Mr. Nathan Strauss, on the ground that the horses owned ostensibly by the latter were in reality the property of Mayor Grant. Since lodging the protest Mr. Walden has been unable to succeed in getting an audience with the august Board, and he became convinced that he was up against a political pull. Last Tuesday evening he met President Dwyer and Mr. J. G. K. Lawrence, and in a fifteen-minute talk Mr. Walden tried his best to convince the Board of Control of the propriety of the Brooklyn Jockey Club and the turf in general.

Every buyer of an apple or a pint of peanuts at Brooklyn receives sure tips on the races. Purchasers of sandwiches will no doubt find tips laid between the bread slices before long.

Reckon's performance yesterday was little short of remarkable. She carried top weight of 120 pounds and gave away big jumps to Demuth, Leonawell, Kildeer, Van Buren, Fidelity and others. She made all her own running and won in a canter in the last time of 2:01.4. On this performance Reckon should hold any nifty in the country safe. Wyndham Walden, who returned from Europe yesterday with A. H. Morris, was greatly pleased over Reckon's improvement.

St. Felix pulled up slightly lame after his good win yesterday, and an examination showed that the outer side of his leg was badly bruised. This will no doubt necessitate the colt being laid up, which is a pity, because he is just beginning to show his true form.

Demuth looked a good thing in the Woodlawn Handicap, but Navio seemed totally unable to get any speed out of the brute. The handicappers figured out Demuth for real jam should Taral ride, but they let him severely alone when Navio was posted as his rider.

Jockey John Gorman, who piloted Watercross into the third place in the St. Leger this year, is sixty years of age.

The rail birds won on Chrysalis to a man yesterday. She warmed through the stretch like a wild horse, and the rail talent succeeded in getting as much as 100 to 1 against her. At the close they had backed her down to 20 to 1. Young Lambie rode a great race. He got away next to last, picked up his horses gradually and making his effort in the stretch, won cleverly by a neck when it looked as though Papoose colt was a certain winner.

Huth was played all over town yesterday for a good thing. McCafferty kindly scratched Fred Taral so that the Veterans could have an easy time of it. Huth ran well to the head of the stretch, where she collapsed. Five or six jumps seems to be her clip.

Jockey Blake has signed to ride as first jockey to the Freehairs Stable next year.

Pittsburg Phil's luck has changed for the better. He bet his money on Parvane in town yesterday, when a field of some eight or ten were named as starters. When post time came Joe Carter was the only other starter. Parvane won a few hands down. This was his eighth successive victory.

The handicappers played Van Buren to beat Reckon yesterday. After the race they began to wonder whether their system is as infallible as they have heretofore regarded it.

Japanica was badly pocketed in the third race yesterday. She looked a sure winner.

The horses owned by Col. Jim Morris will be sold at auction during the Morris Park meeting.

Flavilla was heavily played to win the last race yesterday. Mayor Grant was among the fortunate losers. He went in quite a number of $100 bills, getting as good as $1 to 1 for his money.

CUT HIS OWN THROAT.

Joseph Lang imagines He Was Accused of Incendiarism.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) JAMAICA, L. I., Sept. 22.—Joseph Lang, a farmer, fifty-five years of age, living at Springfield, committed suicide this morning under peculiar circumstances. He was a man of a nervous and excitable disposition, and since the death of his wife a year ago, lately showed symptoms of insanity. Last night he became much excited by the burning of a barn near his house.

He imagined that he had been accused of setting fire to the barn, and at an early hour this morning he cut his throat in his room. He leaves six children.

WHOSE FAULT WAS THE WRECK?

Not Even a Bone Left of Some Shrove Victims.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.) PITTSBURGH, Sept. 22.—The wreck at Shrove, O., on the Port Wayne road yesterday was caused by a blunder, but who was responsible for it has not yet developed. No one knows why the freight pulled out, but the supposition is that a fast freight running between the limited last and No. 8 went by the freight car, and it was not until the freight car completely wiped out all trace of the baggage, express matter, mail, and even some of the bodies of those killed. There is not a remnant or bone to be found of one of the postal clerks, the express messenger or the two ladies going from Bucyrus to Lakelyville.

It is reported that in the registered mail burned there was about $50,000. The express matter was burned except thirty-six silver bricks worth at least $75,000. Fifty or sixty pieces of baggage were destroyed, but what their value was the Company as yet do not know.

A temporary track has been constructed. Not one of the bodies is recognizable except by some marks.

It is now definitely known that there were but two women and one child burned in the wreck. The bodies of the number of dead are eleven. The only body not yet recovered is that of F. C. Mann, the postal clerk, of Chicago.

MISS BEHRENS GETS $80 A WEEK.

Robert Mantell Testifies in Proceedings Against His Leading Lady.

Robert B. Mantell, the actor, appeared in the City Court today in obedience to a subpoena, to tell what he knew about the financial condition of his leading lady, Miss Charlotte Behrens, against whom Mrs. James J. Farrell, of 205 West Thirty-first street, has a judgment for $250, with interest since 1884.

The debt was contracted when Miss Behrens joined Harry Miner's "Silver King" company in that year. The money was advanced by Mrs. Farrell, she says, to buy Miss Behrens' wardrobe.

The examination today was to find out how much salary the actress received. Mr. Mantell says he pays her $80 a week, $40 of which he retains to pay off a loan of $1,000 he made her last summer. The hearing will be continued before Referee Daniel F. Martin next week.

Miss Behrens is named as the woman in the case in the suit for divorce recently brought by Mr. Mantell's wife.

LORD BERSFORD'S CASE.

The English Forger Must Go Back to Serve Ten Years in Georgia.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.) ROMA, Ga., Sept. 22.—A telegram was received here from Gov. Flower this morning notifying the Sheriff of the arrest of Lord Beresford, the Englishman who was convicted here of forgery and who ran away while out on bond awaiting a new trial. Gov. Northern telegraphed Gov. Flower to hold the prisoner. Deputy Sheriff Dallas Turner will go after Beresford and bring him to this city. The Supreme Court affirmed the decision of the lower court in Beresford's case and when he arrives he will be carried to the penitentiary to serve out a sentence of ten years.

HOMESTEADERS FRIGHTENED.

Hustle for Evidence That Will Prevent a Conviction.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.) HOMESTEAD, Pa., Sept. 22.—The action of the Grand Jury in returning true bills in 100 Homestead cases has caused a profound sensation, not unshared with apprehension. Now that all the charges have been sustained by the Grand Jury, speculation as to the possibility of conviction is engendering many minds.

Up to this time the Homesteaders gave no thought to their defense, but in the gravity of their position there is a lively hustle to prove alibis and establish other grounds for defense which will interpose between them and the penitentiary.

The Advisory Board has not been dissolved in consequence of the conspiracy, and the members are confident that under the act of 1891 it is a legal organization.

From Judge Porter's remarks in the O'Donnell hearing they look forward to non-suits.

MR. DEACON GOES FREE.

Report That President Carnot Had Pardoned Him Was True.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.) PARIS, Sept. 22.—The report circulated yesterday that among the pardons signed by President Carnot to commemorate the anniversary of the declaration of the First French Republic was one giving liberty to Mr. Edward Parker Deacon, the American who shot Mr. Aboult for his intimacy with Mrs. Deacon, is confirmed today.

The pardon was sent to the prison authorities at Nice and Mr. Deacon was released today.

The natural consequence of selling clothing that we can sell them for one-third less than the middleman can—because we believe only in honest goods at honest values. Do you want to know what $12 will do? It will buy a man's sack or frock suit of the Lewisburg Mills in ten different patterns and colorings, strictly all wool, neat, genteel and good. $12 will buy a man's all-wool overcoat in fifty different fabrics and colorings; $10 buys a man's sack or overcoat suit in blue and black diagonal, guaranteed all in every respect. We do not pretend to compete with clothing cheaply made and cheaply trimmed, gotten up for appearance sake. Our motto is how good can we produce an article to give the satisfaction demanded. Take our boys' clothing. Why do we sell more boys' goods than any house in New York? Because you will find the value in them. No matter what the price is, the article must give satisfaction. We are the only house in New York that completely outfits boys, from head to foot, all on one floor, the largest in America. Open every evening until 9 o'clock; Saturdays 11.
